in the Jäger Allee in Potsdam there was a conference between Dr. Kolzenburg, Heilmann of the National Democratic Party, a Russian civilian, and a German speaking with a Baltic accent who called himself Wingert. The discussion centered on a list of SED representatives in the Brandenburg Landtag who might be considered likely candidates for the National Democratic Party after having resigned from the SED. In this way the NDP would obtain representatives in the Landtag who make a considered for the SED. In this way the NDP would obtain representative of conding for alegation tion in the Landtag without the formalities of standing for election. It has not been determined what names were on this list.

- The Brandenburg Minister-Präsident, Dr. Karl Steinhoff, had protested some days previously to the NDP Headquarters with regard to the above tactics. Kolzenburg remarked at this meeting Steinhoff would run into volitical difficulties because of his stand on this matter. 25X1X
- A late comer to the above conference was one Dr. Schulze, attorney general from Güstrow, and member of the Free Germany Committee.
